

Teacher of Cello

Part Time Salary Position

Commencing Term 1, 2019

We are seeking a teacher of Cello from the beginning Term 1, 2019.

Position Description

The successful applicant will be a dynamic music educator and an outstanding musician with a proven record of excellence in teaching and performance.

The appointee will demonstrate the ability to thoughtfully implement the existing music curriculum and work co-operatively with other music staff with a focus on continuous improvement of our music school, and the teaching and learning within it.

Support of the Newhaven College values is essential. This position also involves contribution to the College's co-curricular program including participation in rehearsals, musicals, concerts, Presentation Evenings and the annual music camp.

Description of Duties

The specific duties and responsibilities of the Cello teacher will include:

- Prepare for and conduct private music lessons
- Organise materials to facilitate motivation, enjoyment and learning for each student
- Monitor, record and report, both verbally and in written form, on the progress of each student
- Utilise appropriate technology in the teaching and learning of music
- Maintain accurate records of student's attendance, student performance and progress
- Complete other administrative tasks as required
- Work in a team with other teachers in the Music School
- Cooperate with school procedures in relation to matters such as student attendance, punctuality, care of rooms and adherence to rules.
- Adhere to all school policies
- Be a positive role model and conduct oneself as a professional in all interactions with members of the College community
- Other duties as required from time to time by the Director of Music

Selection Criteria

Applicants for this position, Cello Teacher, should demonstrate evidence of the following in their application:

- Highly developed skills as a Cellist (please note candidates may be asked to perform a short work as part of the interview process)

- Appropriate examination levels in both practical and music theory in both classical and popular styles
- Appropriate music education, tertiary degree and/or industry experience
- Experience with performing in and coordinating contemporary, popular and jazz ensembles
- Experience in and knowledge of AMEB and VCE syllabus and repertoire
- A dynamic and approachable manner with the ability to relate well to students from Prep through to VCE
- Success in fostering a love of music learning and commitment to excellence
- A proven record as an outstanding teacher
- An understanding of the Newhaven College context and requirements for ensuring child safety

The ability to play piano or another stringed instrument would be an advantage.
